ITEM 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

The Registrant's news release dated September 11, 2007, regarding the Registrant's outlook for the third quarter of 2007 attached hereto as Exhibit 99 is incorporated by reference herein.

ITEM 9.01. Exhibits

Designation of Exhibit in this Report	Description of Exhibit
99	Registrant's News Release Dated September 11, 2007 (furnished pursuant to Item 7.01)

"Safe Harbor" Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: This report includes forward-looking statements intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements generally can be identified by phrases such as TI or its management "believes," "expects," "anticipates," "foresees," "forecasts," "estimates" or other words or phrases of similar import. Similarly, statements in this report that describe the Company's business strategy, outlook, objectives, plans, intentions or goals also are forward-looking statements. All such forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in forward-looking statements.

We urge you to carefully consider the following important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the expectations of the Company or its management:

- Market demand for semiconductors, particularly for analog chips and digital signal processors in key markets such as communications, entertainment electronics and computing;
- TI's ability to maintain or improve profit margins, including its ability to utilize its manufacturing facilities at sufficient levels to cover its fixed operating costs, in an intensely competitive and cyclical industry;
- TI's ability to develop, manufacture and market innovative products in a rapidly changing technological environment;
- TI's ability to compete in products and prices in an intensely competitive industry;
- TI's ability to maintain and enforce a strong intellectual property portfolio and obtain needed licenses from third parties;
- Expiration of license agreements between TI and its patent licensees, and market conditions reducing royalty payments to TI;
- Economic, social and political conditions in the countries in which TI, its customers or its suppliers operate, including security risks, health conditions, possible disruptions in transportation networks and fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates;
- Natural events such as severe weather and earthquakes in the locations in which TI, its customers or its suppliers operate;
- Availability and cost of raw materials, utilities, manufacturing equipment, third-party manufacturing services and manufacturing technology;
- Changes in the tax rate applicable to TI as the result of changes in tax law, the jurisdictions in which profits are determined to be earned and taxed, the outcome of tax audits and the ability to realize deferred tax assets;
- Losses or curtailments of purchases from key customers and the timing and amount of distributor and other customer inventory adjustments;
- Customer demand that differs from company forecasts;
- The financial impact of inadequate or excess TI inventories to meet demand that differs from projections;
- Product liability or warranty claims, or recalls by TI customers for a product containing a TI part;
- TI's ability to recruit and retain skilled personnel; and
- Timely implementation of new manufacturing technologies, installation of manufacturing equipment and the ability to obtain needed third-party foundry and assembly/test subcontract services.

For a more detailed discussion of these factors, see the text under the heading "Risk Factors" in Item 1A of the Company's most recent Form 10-K. The forward-looking statements included in this report on Form 8-K are made only as of the date of this report, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update the forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.

TI Updates Third-Quarter 2007 Business Outlook

- Revenue Expected between $3.56 Billion and $3.72 Billion
- EPS Expected between $0.49 and $0.53, Including Gain on Sale of Product Line

Conference Call on TI Web Site at 4 p.m. CDT Today
www.ti.com/ir

DALLAS (Sept. 11, 2007) – In a scheduled update to its business outlook for the third quarter of 2007, Texas Instruments Incorporated (TI) (NYSE: TXN) today narrowed its expected ranges for revenue and earnings per share (EPS).

The company's expectations for revenue are:

- Total revenue between $3.56 billion and $3.72 billion, compared with the prior range of $3.49 billion to $3.79 billion;
- Semiconductor revenue between $3.36 billion and $3.50 billion, compared with the prior range of $3.29 billion to $3.57 billion; and
- Education Technology revenue between $200 million and $220 million, consistent with the prior range.

TI expects EPS from continuing operations between $0.49 and $0.53, compared with the previous range of $0.46 to $0.52. The revised EPS range includes about $0.02 from the gain on the sale of TI's semiconductor product line associated with DSL customer-premises equipment. The sale closed in July.

The company will hold a conference call at 4 p.m. CDT today to discuss this update. This conference call will be available live at www.ti.com. TI's original third-quarter outlook was published in the company's second-quarter 2007 earnings release on July 23, available at www.ti.com. TI's third quarter ends on September 30.
